Theme: The Risen Lord, Jesus Christ

Introduction

According to the Book of Micah, Jesus has been there from the beginning to the end. Hebrews says He's the same yesterday, today and forever. "In the beginning was the Word (...)". The Book of Matthew says His name shall be Jesus.

He came to save His people from sin. Ephesians (2:10). God has prepared good things for us, so that we may walk in them. His garments grew with Him, never got torn or old, and the soldiers gambled to have them.

Live a life that has no anxiety

It's good to know when your time has come. Like Jesus told his mother that- it was not yet his hour to change water into wine. And because of this, His life had no anxiety. When we know our times, we will live a life with no anxiety.

Your Ending shall be Better

When Jesus came, he was laid in a manger. When he was about to die, He was having supper in a large furnished upper room. It does not matter where you begin: your ending shall be better.

Be revived, and live for Him

Matthew (27:52) When Jesus died, tombs broke open and the dead saints rose to life. It shall be so to our lives now. Our situations shall be revived and we shall receive our breakthroughs in Jesus name.

Empty tomb

Luke 24:50-51

"And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them and it came to pass, while He blessed them, He was parted from them, and carried up into heaven."

As Jesus went up, so shall He return. So we should look up to Him (Acts 1:10-11).

2 Corinthians (5:15) He died for all. So now we should live for Him who died for us.

Conclusion

God desires that we leave the house of bondage. He has set us free. John (19:30) It is finished - we have been set free.

Ephesians (2:5-6) He has raised us with Christ and has made us sit in heavenly places with Christ, reigning with Him. We must exercise our freedom that He has given to us. Desire not to be the same again.
