Preacher: Presbyter Laban Mbabazi

Theme: Striving for the crown

Scripture Reference: 1st Corinthians
9:24-27

Introduction

We Christians, we should know that we should discipline ourselves for an imperishable crown.

What are your expectations in the Lord?

How discipline helps;

1. Discipline yourself so that you don't get disturbed when brethren get things you haven't gotten yet. In God's house we are not in competition. It is teamwork.

2. You should be temperate in our thinking to know how to relate with others. Put aside things of the flesh and focus on God.

3. Paul told the Corinthians to run with certainty knowing where they were going. The events we are going through are sign we are in the last lap. The book of Revelations urges us to hold on so that none takes our crown. Do not look back.

2nd Timothy (4:6)

4. Lift up one another

Philippians (2:3-4) This portion of scripture urges us not to do anything in vain glory. That we should consider others to be better than we are. When you do this, you won't be envious of your neighbors' gift.

5. God rewards faithfulness not position. Remain where the Lord has put you. Be effective where God has put you.

6. Love as a way of preaching

John (13: 34-35) 1st John (14-15)

We can win people through love. If you have no love, you are like a brother who is running a race that has no crown

Conclusion

We are on the last lap; will you get a crown?
